

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ:

At our synod assembly this year we were encouraged to invite people who might have the gifts for ministry to consider becoming a pastor. Projections are that (at present) we will reach a point where we will only have 50% of the people needed to fill the pastoral needs of the church. Ouch. From Trinity, however, we have seen a number of people (including our son) hear and respond to the call to serve the Church. What's more, we have the potential within our congregation for many more. We encourage everyone to consider whether God is calling you to serve as a leader in the Church.

It also means that we all need to consider how God is calling us to serve and care in our lives. At this time in our church life, God may be reminding us of the importance of each person to spread the Good News in their lives by all they do.

Are there people around you right now who need the loving touch of one of God's people? Maybe they need a prayer right now and maybe you are the person to offer it.

Is there an older person right next door who could use a visit, or some help in their life. There was a call recently from a young adult who had come through Trinity's youth program who was looking for a way to help an aging neighbor. They were offering their care and concern, In doing that, they were answering God's call.

Are there activities or ways that God is calling you to to share God's love in your community or beyond? Maybe you are being called to be a big brother or sister. Maybe God is speaking to you about those who need a home and is calling you to Family Promise, or Habitat for Humanity, or maybe to be a foster parent.

Is God calling you to take on a social issue such as racism, poverty, violence, or some other aspect of our life together? Maybe God is calling you into the area of... politics (oh my), as a field where you can express God's love.

Maybe as we are struggling to fill Pastoral vacancies in the larger Church, it is time to remember the importance of each of us in the work of the kingdom. In the end the truth is that all of us are called. What is your call?

We may not all be pastors, but we are all ministers of the Lord.

Thank you!

MANY, MANY THANKS to EVERYONE involved in pulling off the ENCORE performance of Nunsense! It was another example of both stewardship and successful fundraising! An estimated $2500 was raised to help offset the cost of sending our High School Youth to the ELCA National Youth Gathering THIS MONTH!!!

Thank you also to ALL our volunteers and especially to the hilarious and talented cast of characters: Sue Gilbertson (also the Director), Susan Andereck, Mary McNamara-Wittmann, Barb Pfeifer-Woog and Laura Hillman-Mitchell—accompanied by Hazel Griffin and the amazing tech support team: Greg Griffin, Rick Gilbertson and Nick Mitchell.

Blessed by the best!

During their debut last year, this AWESOME community all-male vocal ensemble helped raise over $13,000 to help 3 local families. Proceeds of this year's fundraising effort will benefit two community causes: the Washington County Heroin Project and an inclusive playground being built in Jackson, designed for kids of all ages and abilities —our part as a memorial to Matthew Beekman.

Bible and Book Studies

In July there will be no Bible study meetings because Pastor Dave will be recovering from knee surgery. We will pick up the study of 1 Corinthians in August.

Book study is taking a rest in the summer, but we do have a summer assignment for you all. Please read the books that are in the summer reading list for the community. And also begin to think of books for the fall. Please submit any books you would like to have us study to Pastor Dave at dschoob@trinitywestbend.com or call the church office. And look for the triumphant return of book study in the fall.

Are You Interested in Visiting? We have a wonderful group of people who are a part of our congregation and yet have difficulty getting out. They get visits from Pastor Dave and yet our visitation ministry could be so much more. Think of the joy you could bring someone with just a little of your time and a willingness to listen and share. Pastor Dave will be assembling a care team for the fall. Think about whether maybe God is calling you to share His love by visiting the home bound and lonely. If you would be interested please contact Pastor Dave at dschoob@trinitywestbend.com or call the church office.

Prayer Concerns

- In a world filled with such division we pray for unity. We pray for God's blessings on the president, on the republicans and democrats in congress, for Governor Walker and the both sides of the aisle in our state legislature. Let us pray that God would lead all to work together for the good of all God's people everywhere.
  - There are so many natural disasters in the world. Please pray that God would comfort and strengthen all those affected. Please also pray for the first responders that God would protect and keep them as they serve those in need.
  - Please pray for our congregation that we would continue to serve our Lord faithfully in all we do. Pray that God's Spirit would lead us to the places of greatest need around us.
  - Let us give thanks for the goodness of God. Each day take time to thank the Lord for three blessings you have received in the day.
  - This month practice making prayer a true conversation. Ask God to speak to you in new ways and then take time each day to listen for the voice of God. Take some silent time. Keep your eyes open for all the ways that God is at work around you.
  - Please take time to pray for all those who are in need around you. Take time to pray for those you know who are sick, shut-in, grieving, struggling and hurting. Please take time to remember the hungry and the homeless and those who are alone. Let your prayer life reach out into ever wider circles and connect in new ways with the world around you.
- May your prayers be a way this month to draw closer in love to God and God's world.

A Stewardship Note

As we prepare to enter the summer months, we are already entering the summer financial slump that we see every year in the congregation. From a comfortable positive financial balance we are now seeing negative numbers in the range of $10,000. We encourage everyone to continue to keep up on their pledge during the summer months and even offer a special gift if it is within your ability to do so. We approved a budget in which we knew we would have to stretch a bit. So let's stretch together.

It's Not Easy Being Green

There are many people who have talked to me about the importance of caring for God's world, hence this column each month. But maybe it is time to take the next step. How can we as a congregation be more proactive in caring for the world and how can we help others in this task. We once tried to put together a green team and I think it is time to try again. If you would be interested in discussing ways we can promote care of creation in our life together, or if you are interested in environmental issues please let me know and we will start to assemble a group focused on being more green in our life. If you are interested please contact Pastor Dave at dschoob@trinitywestbend.com or call the church office.

From the Outreach Team... Since 2015, the ELCA has used the theme of "God's Work. Our Hands." to encourage congregations to set aside a specific day as an opportunity to celebrate who we are as the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America – one church, freed in Christ to serve and love our neighbor.

Service activities offer an opportunity for us to explore one of our most basic convictions as Lutherans: that all of life in Jesus Christ – every act of service, in every daily calling, in every corner of life – flows freely from a living, daring confidence in God's grace.

Mark your calendars to participate in Trinity's 2018 day of service celebration on Saturday October 6. We will be seeking out projects so that Trinity family members, young and old, of every ability can participate in this dedicated day of service. Watch for more information throughout the summer! If you are interested in being involved in planning for this event or have suggestions for service projects, contact Hazel Griffin.

A Report about our Experience at the 2018 Greater Milwaukee ELCA Synod Assembly

Hazel Griffin, Phil Pierce and myself (Sandy Poenitsch) were the three people who volunteered and were nominated to attend the 2018 Greater Milwaukee ELCA Synod Assembly held in Pewaukee, May 31-June 2 this year. Also attending were retired Pastor, Paul Bauman, Jerry Schmidt (MERU), Donna Hallada and our Pastors (on alternating days).

The assembly itself was a very good experience, grounded in faith, lead by a very passionate and personable Bishop (Paul Erickson) and filled with a number of different perspectives on racism, worship, outreach and ways we can connect with each other. The theme of the assembly was Trusting the Winds of the Spirit: Curiosity, Courage, Compassion. It began on Thursday evening with an eye-opening and inspiring message entitled, "How Did We Get Here?" delivered through Reggie Jackson, a native of Milwaukee and the Head Griot (docent) of America's Black Holocaust Museum in Milwaukee. You can see a video of Reggie's inspiring message here: www.facebook.com/MilwaukeeSynod/videos/10160402918755282/

Reggie asked us to take the Harvard Implicit Bias Test and suggested these steps in breaking down barriers:

Steps to Take (The Easy Stuff) 1. Get out of your bubble; 2. Pay attention to your habits; 3. Become aware of biased behavior; 4. Replace your automatic judgments of others; 5. Develop a strong desire and motivation to seek change; 6. Create a strategy to build your own personal understanding of others; 7. Study alternative sources written by people from other groups that you are not familiar with

Steps to Take (The Hard Stuff) 1. Make a concerted effort to build real, genuine friendships with people from other groups; 2. See for yourself, listen for yourself, and think for yourself; 3. Call out your friends, family members, co-workers, etc., for prejudices and discriminatory behaviors; 4. Stop trying to prove that you're colorblind; 5. Recognize that our personal biases come from our life experiences; 6. Turn off the TV and talk radio and pick up a book about American history

Another very enthusiastic young speaker (proud to be in the 35 and under group!) that had an impact on us was Xavier Thomas from All People's Church in Milwaukee. Xavier had us smiling and sitting up straight as he shared a spirit-filled personal testimony about his love for God, the church that found him and for the grace he found there. He shared that he is planning to go to school and enter the ministry and anticipated about what worship might look like when that happens. Catch Xavier's enthusiasm: www.facebook.com/MilwaukeeSynod/videos/10160403474575282/

Additionally, a short video of Joe Davis reciting a poem entitled "Show UP" had a strong message and impact.

Three breakout sessions: Curiosity, Courage and Compassion took place on Friday afternoon. Reggie Jackson's talk overlapped with the session Hazel, Phil, Donna and I attended on Curiosity in that he promoted making a sincere effort to get out of our bubbles and make connections with people that are different from ourselves. Paul Bauman, who attended Courage, said the most significant discussion, for him, occurred in the small groups, and were focused on racial justice.

We learned a lot about our Synod during the assembly. The synod is involved in a great deal of outreach both locally and through partnerships with Tanzania. Outreach for Hope was highlighted as a very effective mission in the greater Milwaukee area. One of their main fundraisers this fall is a Bike Ride for Hope. The synod also has resources to help congregations answer the questions we might have around; "what are our gifts?", and "where are we called to serve?". We don't have to reinvent the wheel - we are invited to take advantage of available resources. Also, though they are not run specifically by our synod, there are a number of financial instruments connected to the ELCA: the Mission Investment Fund and the new ELCA Credit Union.

The Bishop also shared a need from our Synod for more clergy and asked us all to recruit people with gifts toward the ministry. The number of people coming out of seminary right now only meet about 50% of the demand for pastors. Paul Bauman would also like for us (Trinity) to consider, if possible, helping support those from our congregation who are on that path (financially).

Some of the mechanics of the Assembly was passing the Synod budget and these resolutions:

Resolution 1 (passed) - 2018 Greater Milwaukee Synod Assembly Resolution in Commitment to more fully embracing the Reconciling in Christ identity on the Greater Milwaukee Synod.

Resolution 2 (passed) - 2018 Greater Milwaukee Synod Assembly Resolution in support of expanding support of Prison Congregation, Prison/Jail re-entry ministry and Prison reform Advocacy

There are a couple things I happened to write down while at the assembly that stood out.

1. The Gift of God comes wrapped in "people"; 2. When we are not curious, we assume we already KNOW everything we need to know.

Respectfully submitted,
Sandy Poenitsch
