DECEMBER 2020

behold,
I bring you good news of great joy that is for all people

Dear Trinity Family,

As of the writing of this letter the infection rate of Covid-19 continues to climb and hospitals in many places are overloaded. Though the election seems to be a little more certain, cries of unfair continue to ring in the air. And we are presented for the first time in our 36 years of ministry with the real likelihood that we will not be able to gather together for Christmas worship and celebration.

That, however, does not stop Christmas in the least. The first Christmas occurred during a census commanded by Caesar that disrupted the lives of most people. In the city of Bethlehem the inn was overflowing and there was no room for a young couple expecting a baby except in a cave used to house the animals. Shepherds were looked down on as disreputable and unaccepted. Kings plotted murder on a grand scale. Yet, Christ came anyway. Christ came among us even in those circumstances and with him came the promise of light and life and new beginnings.

And, Christ still comes today. We will still sing the praises of God, because God was, is and always will be with us. Opportunities for bringing our hearts together still exist. There will be a virtual advent cantata for all of us to share—wherever we are. We are offering advent activities to our families and online Daily Devotions for all of us to visit each day as we prepare our hearts for Jesus' coming. We will continue to worship together online and, on Christmas Eve, we will invite you to have candles ready to light wherever you happen to be We will also offer another drive-thru opportunity to share prayer and receive holy communion on Christmas Eve.

Christmas is different this year and yet Christmas still comes—wherever we are. A letter about Christmas written by Dietrich Bonhoeffer from a Nazi prison camp is a reminder to us that there is nothing that can stop the power of God's love. (SEE LETTER ON PAGE 3).

Nothing stops Christmas. Christ comes to us and for us—wherever we are.

Wherever you may be this Christmas and whatever we face as individuals, as families, and as a world, remember what the angels proclaim: "Do not be afraid; for behold, I bring you good news of great joy which will be for all the people; for today in the city of David there has been born for you a Savior, who is Christ the Lord. This will be a sign for you: you will find a baby wrapped in cloths and lying in a manger." And suddenly there appeared with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God and saying, "Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace among men with whom He is pleased."

Wherever you are—peace.

May Christmas live in your heart,

Shirl Curreri announces plans to retire

After 14 years serving as Trinity's Parish Coordinator, Shirl Curreri has announced her decision to retire. This decision did not come easily, Shirl loves her job and her church, but due to health condition challenges her husband has, she feels the time has come for her to dedicate more of her time and attention at home with Tony. She also looks forward to having more free time to visit her son in Seattle —that is, as soon as traveling is safe once again!

There is no specific target date for Shirl's retirement — she has agreed to stay in place as we begin the search for a qualified candidate, during the hiring process and through training of a new Parish Coordinator.

Shirl is very thankful and wants to express her gratitude to the Trinity family for, as she put it, "your kindness and patience as I learned the ins and outs of working for you and for 14 of the best years ever"! She further expressed that she believes our faith in God and love for Trinity will help to see us through this very strange time. Shirl may be leaving the office, but she is not going too far as she plans to continue to do more for Trinity as a volunteer! And, for that, we are thankful knowing we will continue to be blessed by her presence and her gifts.

Please join us in expressing our thankfulness and gratitude to Shirl for her dedication to our Pastors, our congregation and for the gifts she has and continues to freely share with us. We are better because of her service and she will be missed behind the desk at Trinity.

Please Keep in Mind

We will have an official celebration of Shirl's years of service to Trinity once we are able to gather again socially in large groups.

You Gave.

DONATIONS ROCK!

Trinity's mission to Share God's love and promise is often demonstrated through the generosity of members who share from their own blessings, giving of themselves out of care and compassion. Time after time, the people of Trinity come through to make a difference for others. Here are some ways you can keep this part of our ministry alive.

Giving Tree

Thank you, Trinity!

Nothing can stop the power of God's love.

We asked and you gave—all of the Giving Tree gift suggestions for Samaritan Home residents were spoken for very soon after the SignUP Genius invitations were sent out!

As of this printing, there are still opportunities to provide gifts to 10 families from our community through the Gingerbread House. You will find the SignUP Genius form on Trinity's website: trinitywestbend.com, under the volunteer section.

We asked and you gave—new socks, hats and mittens that were donated to The Gathering in Milwaukee. These items were delivered by John and Denise Kenworthy and on Saturday November 7th, when they volunteered to serve

We asked and you gave—a week's worth of meals were provided to Family Promise families during our host week in November.

We asked and you gave—a FOOD DRIVE-THRU resulted in a good amount of food and grocery store gift cards were collected to help families in our church and community who are struggling to make ends meet.

We asked and you gave—God's Work. Our Hands. Volunteering your time to help with fall clean up at the Blue Lotus Farm & Retreat Center and in tying fleece blankets for the Holiday HOPE program that reaches out to at risk students in our community schools. Please have completed (tied) fleece blankets back to church by Wednesday, December 9th.

We asked and you gave—your continued support for our Compassion International sponsored child, Kaori is a much needed, ongoing gift with an impact that few of us can imagine.

You can donate to this ministry by texting 1-844-385-9887 and specifying Kaori. Enter the amount you want to give, followed by a space and the name Kaori. SAMPLE: if you want to donate $10, enter 10 Kaori in the text. It's that simple! You can also mail or drop off a donation at Trinity God's Work.

Our Hands.

Remember Kaori

Dear Parents,

Above all, you must not think that I will let myself sink into depression during this lonely Christmas. It will take its own special place in a series of very different Christmases that I have celebrated in Spain, in America, in England, and I want in later years to be able to think back on these days not with shame but with a special pride. That is the only thing that no one can take from me.

I don't need to tell you how great my longing for freedom and for all of you is. But you have for so many decades provided us with Christmases so incomparably beautiful, that the grateful memories of them are strong enough to outshine even a dark Christmas.

From a Christian point of view, a Christmas in a prison cell is no special problem. It will probably be celebrated here in this house more sincerely and with more meaning than outside where the holiday is observed in name only. Misery, poverty, loneliness, helplessness, and guilt mean something entirely different in the eyes of God than in the judgment of men.

That God turns directly toward the place where men are careful to turn away; that Christ was born in a stable because he found no room in the Inn—a prisoner grasps that better than someone else. For him it really is a joyous message, and because he believes it, he knows that he has been placed in the Christian fellowship that breaks all the bounds of time and space; and the months in prison lose their importance.

On Holy Evening (Christmas Eve) I will be thinking of all of you very much, and I would very much like for you to believe that I will have a few beautiful hours and my troubles will certainly not overcome me.

If one thinks of the terrors that have recently come to so many people [with the heavy allied fire bombings] in Berlin, then one first becomes conscious of how much we still have for which to be thankful. Overall, it will surely be a very silent Christmas, and the children will still be thinking back on it for a long time to come. And maybe in this way it becomes clear to many what Christmas really is. . .

Your Dietrich

Dietrich Bonhoeffer was a German pastor and theologian known for his opposition to National Socialism. His ties to the July 20, 1944, conspiracy to overthrow the Nazi regime led to his execution in 1945. His theological writings are regarded as classics throughout the Christian world.

It is almost impossible to be a member of Trinity and not have been approached and encouraged to do your part (volunteer) by a certain redhead—who wasn't very good at taking "no" for an answer!

Having her own enthusiasm and heart for service, was never intimidated or shy about introducing herself and asking others to step up and get involved! Donna wore her devotion to her Trinity family and ministries on her sleeve for all to see and she is already missed—abundantly.

Donna Hallada

*Those we love
don't go away.
they walk beside us
every day. . .
unseen, unheard,
but always near,
still loved, so missed
and very dear.*

Godspeed, Donna.

I do not give to you as the world gives.
Do not let your hearts be troubled and do not be afraid."

JOHN 14:27

Prayers for the Christmas Season

In the spirit of the season may we all offer the following prayers:

We pray for peace in a world often torn by division and strife. We pray for peace for the world and that peace might rule in our hearts.

We pray for those who, like the shepherds, live on the edge of society. May the love that Christ brings help us draw the circle wider so that all might be included.

We remember the Magi who freely offer the gifts of their wealth to honor the new born king. We pray that we would use our gifts to honor the Lord by caring for those who need the basics of life. We pray that those in power would use their power for the good of all people.

Remembering Mary and Joseph we pray that all families would become a place where children are cared for and love is shared in abundance.

Remembering all who gathered around Jesus both at birth and throughout his life we pray that we would all be drawn together into the new family that Jesus creates. We pray that we could begin to see all people as part of the world we share and stand against racism, sexism, heterosexism, agism, and all the other things that threaten to tear us apart.

We remember the evil Herod planned and how the Magi stood against it. May your people stand against the power of evil wherever it is found.

And most of all we remember Jesus who enters the world to be with us. We pray that you would help us all to stand with one another in time of need—entering into the places of suffering and offering ourselves as a gift. We also pray that all children born would be seen as a sign of your love reborn anew each day.

We pray in this season that all would experience peace and hope and joy.

Advent is a time to share the Christmas story and prepare our hearts for Jesus' birth

We have a couple advent activities available for Trinity families to share with their children to walk with them as they prepare for Christmas:

- Jesse Tree Advent Activity
Color and hang ornaments each day in Advent that tell the Christmas story
- Virtual Advent Calendar and activities
Messages will be shared by some familiar Children's Ministry (shepherd) faces that encourage kids to focus on the true meaning of Christmas

In those days Caesar Augustus issued a decree that a census should be taken of the entire Roman world. (This was the first census that took place while Quirinius was governor of Syria.) And everyone went to their own town to register.

In December we will share the Christmas stories in the Gospels.

So Joseph also went up from the town of Nazareth in Galilee to Judea, to Bethlehem the town of David, because he belonged to the house and line of David. He went there to register with Mary, who was pledged to be married to him and was expecting a child. While they were there, the time came for the baby to be born, and she gave birth to her firstborn, a Son. She wrapped Him in cloths and placed Him in a manger, because there was no guest room available for them. —LUKE 2:4-7

Greater Milwaukee Synod

A LETTER FROM BISHOP ERICKSON

November 11, 2020
Friends in Christ,

On October 8, in response to Gov. Evers' executive order limiting the size of gatherings in Wisconsin, I released a message stating, "While religious organizations are legally exempt from this order, I am strongly urging all our congregations to refrain from gathering indoors for worship and other activities until mid-November at the earliest." Since then, we have seen a continued surge in the number of COVID-19 cases, hospitalizations, and deaths in every county of our synod and across the state.

Yesterday, Gov. Evers issued a new executive order, urging all Wisconsinites to stay home as much as possible and avoid gatherings with people not part of your immediate family and household. While this order is advisory and not mandatory, I believe it is prudent and wise for the congregations of our synod to follow it. I therefore am strongly urging all congregations of the Greater Milwaukee Synod to discontinue indoor gatherings for worship or other activities until at least January 2021.

I recognize that the vast majority of our congregations have been following this guidance, and I am grateful for your willingness to work together and participate in the efforts to slow the spread of this dangerous virus. I am also aware of several congregations that are continuing to gather for worship indoors. While these congregations may well be following guidelines regarding the wearing of masks, physical distancing, and other safety protocols, and while these congregations may not be aware of any COVID-related spread or outbreaks in their community, I believe the risks involved in gathering far outweigh the benefits. I urge you to reconsider the decision to gather indoors at least until the start of the new year.

When this pandemic began earlier this year, few among us could have known how long this would last and the kinds of decisions and sacrifices we would be asked to make. And now, as we prepare for a holiday season that will be unlike any we have experienced, I am well aware of the challenges and disappointments that continue to fill our lives. And yet, we are not without hope. There is promising news of an effective vaccine that may be widely available in the spring of 2021. As people of faith, we cling to the hope we have in the promises of Christ. This coming season of Advent can be a rich time of reflection and prayer, as we dwell in the silence and the longing of this season of waiting. Across our synod, congregations are experimenting with simple and creative ways to connect people to the promises of Advent and Christmas, even when we can't physically be together. In the words of one of my favorite Advent hymns, "Yet I believe beyond believing that life can spring from death, that growth can flower from our grieving, that we can catch our breath and turn transfixed by faith." (Each Winter As the Year Grows Older, ELW 252, verse 3).

In hope and love,
Bishop Paul Erickson

All Saints' Day

A little girl sat in the church with her father. The girl tugged on her dad's shirt and asked, "Who are those people in the window?"

The father explained to his daughter that the stained glass windows tell the stories of the great saints in the church. The following week, a Sunday School teacher asked her class this question: "Who are the saints?"

The same little girl raised her hand, and when the teacher called on her she responded, "The saints are the ones the light shines through!"

- UNKNOWN

We began the month of November by celebrating All Saints' Day on Sunday. All Saints' Day is a Christian solemnity celebrated in honor of all the saints, known and unknown.

This is normally a celebration we share as family at the Church when, traditionally, we light candles in a darkened church to remember each of those who have died from our Christian family in the past year.

This year the celebration was different, but still significant.

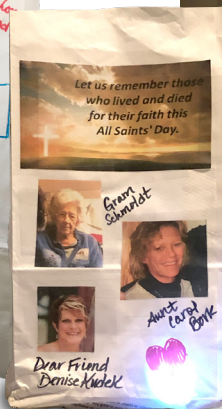

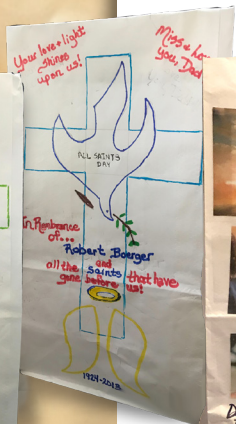

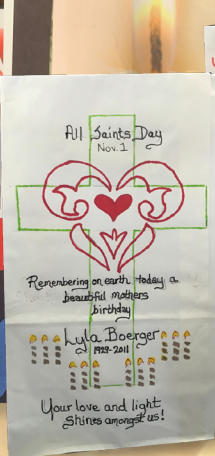

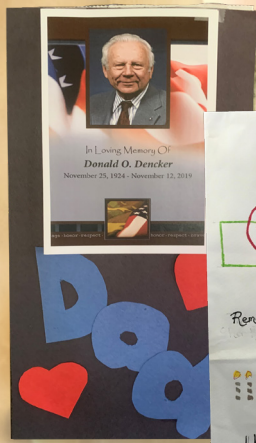

Trinity members were invited to a drive-thru to pick up luminary kits they could decorate and light at their homes in honor of the saints that went before them.

This was a unique new way that, even as we remain socially distant, we still celebrated All Saints together.

Thank you to those who shared photos of their All Saints' Day luminaries.

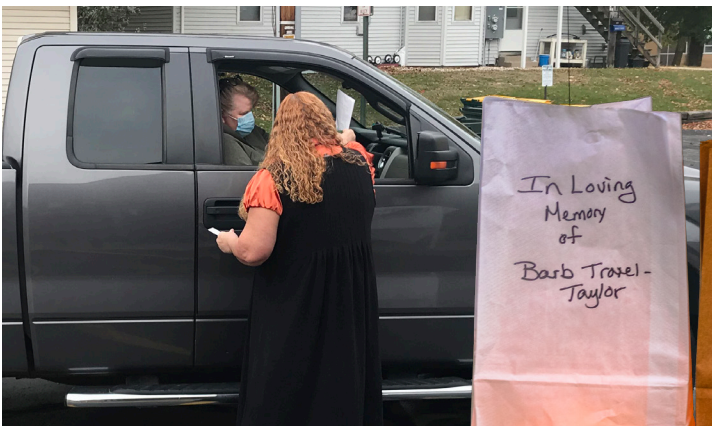

God's Work. Our Hands. A good number of Trinity families stepped up in late October to help with fall clean up at Blue Lotus Farm & Retreat Center.

Candles were lit in a darkened church during All Saints' Day online worship to remember those who have died from our Christian family in the past year.

God's Work. Our Hands. Many hands made the tasks easier and working outdoors provided an opportunity for some very welcome and safe social interaction.

A drive-thru to pick up for All Saints' Day Luminary kits was held as a way for us to still celebrate the Saints together.

Suddenly a great company of the heavenly host appeared with the angel, praising God and saying, "Glory to God in the highest heaven, and on earth peace to those on whom his favor rests" When the angels had left them and gone into heaven, the shepherds said to one another, "Let's go to Bethlehem and see this thing that has happened, which the Lord has told us about." —LUKE2:13-15

So they hurried off and found Mary and Joseph, and the baby, who was lying in the manger. When they had seen him, they spread the word concerning what had been told them about this child, and all who heard it were amazed at what the shepherds said to them. But Mary treasured up all these things and pondered them in her heart. The shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all the things they had heard and seen, which were just as they had been told.—LUKE 2:16-20
