Behold
I make all things new.

REVELATION 21:5

Happy New Year to Everyone Reading this Letter,

Normally the pastors' letter reflects the musings of both Cris and I, but this month I am striking out on my own. New Years is always exciting for me. It begins with our wedding anniversary, and how can that be anything but wonderful?! It is a time to take stock of all the wonderful things that have touched me in the last year. By the way all of you are a part of those wonderful things.

But what bothers me is that the world does not always seem to be so new. Some would remind me that it is new. We have conquered so many problems. We have amazing medicine and the quality of living is better for most of the world. I bow to such wisdom.

But what does not seem to ever change is the human reality of brokenness that seems to pervade the world. We continue to fight wars and kill one another. We continue to treat others who are different with prejudice and sometimes even hatred and contempt. We prioritize our own needs and lives at the expense of others. Refugees are kept out, the hungry continue to starve, the rich expand their wealth, the poor lose ground, and the homeless remain cold and alone. We deny we are broken and refuse to consider changes because, well, it all seems impossible. Sometimes I wonder if we can change at all.

Yet Jesus calls all this into question. His disciples were shocked by the demand Jesus makes on a rich person. Jesus invites him to give all he has away and follow Jesus in his ministry. I am sure we would balk as well. How can anyone do such a thing?

Here is Jesus' response: 'For mortals it is impossible, but for God all things are possible.'

I keep returning to that idea. Jesus can make us as individuals new—for nothing is impossible to God. During the holidays Cris and Nick and I went to the movie Spirited. It is kind of a retelling of a Christmas Carol. One of the most powerful messages of the movie is that we may not change miraculously all at once—but we can be new, one small act at a time. In the same way, we can also work to change what appears to be an unchanging world—one small act at a time.

May we be made new in this New Year and continue to work to change the world on small act at a time. For with God nothing is impossible.

With wishes for a Blessed NEW Year,

Pastor Dave

In giving, we made a season as beautiful as it is meaningful.

Literally hundreds of gifts were donated to make a difference for others by supporting:

- the High School HOLIDAY HOPE project,
- GINGERBREAD HOUSE families,
- SAMARITAN HOME residents,
- families connected to TRINITY,
- and the BtCC gift bags.

And that wasn't all... you also supported our HELPING HANDS outreach ministry FUND by purchasing all the pre-packaged INCREDIBLE EDIBLE cookies and other sweet treats donated by a number of talented TRINITY BAKERS!

From our organizers, bakers, gift sorters and deliverers, to everyone who filled a tag or bought a cookie—

Thank You!

Small gift bag. BIG impact.

Breaking the Chains Church (BtCC) Gift Bags

Thank you to everyone who donated bags of chips for the Breaking the Chains Church (BtCC) gift bags put together for the men and staff at two correctional centers we work with.

Each gift bag contained:

about 4 beef sticks, 2 bags of chips, a package of cheese and peanut butter crackers, a granola bar, a stick of deodorant, a bottle of body soap, 2 stamped envelopes with blank Christmas cards in them, and a couple of peppermint candies.

The Christmas gift bags were delivered to the men about a week before Christmas.

At the next worship service, men who normally don't show up for worship came by beforehand just to say thank you and tell us how much they appreciated the gift bags. You know, for most of these men that gift bag is the only Christmas gift they'll see, the only thing that makes Christmas day something other than just another day.

We asked some of the men what their favorite item in the gift bag was. One said, the peppermint candy, because it reminded him of his grandmother. Another said, the cards and envelopes. He said he sent one to his mother and the other to his auntie—without those cards he'd wouldn't have had anything to send to them. Another man said his favorite thing was everything! And a number of others said they appreciated the deodorant, which is an item that is not always easy for them to come by.

I thought I'd pass along a little theology one of the men shared at the end of the worship service. At the end of worship he said, "I have something to say." Then he looked at every man sitting round that table, the incarcerated and the unincarcerated and said, "Don't let no one say you're not good because you been incarcerated or because of the mistakes you made. God made you and when God makes something it's good. So don't let no one ever tell you you're not. Don't you listen to them."

A small gift bag had a big impact. Many of the men were surprised that there were people out there that care about them at all. Please keep these men in your prayers throughout the year.

Thank You Trinity!

Y'all will be hearing more in the new year about other ways we can bring a little light into the dark places.

STEWARDSHIP | A NEW PERSPECTIVE

Our commitment to the work of God arises out of realizing how truly blessed we are. So here is an assignment for the month of January: Keep a journal of all the blessings that you receive throughout the month. At the end of the month take some time to reflect and give thanks. It just might give you a new perspective on life.

*Therefore, if anyone is in Christ,
he is a new creation.
The old has passed away;
behold, the new has come.*

PICTURES BY PETER NELSON . . . THANK YOU, PETER!

Trinity was treated to a fantastic performance of 'The Christmas Story | Jesus is the same Yesterday, Today and Forever' by our Children's Ministry Kiddos on Sunday, December 11th! You all did so great—my heart is full and happy! Alyssa

BELOW | The 4th-6th Grade F.I.S.H. Youth Group Christmas Party on December 18th was a time filled with fun, laughs, games and sweet treats galore.

Cookie Decorating 101

On a Tuesday evening in December a large group of Trinity folks took advantage of gathering to learn some royal icing tips and tricks as they decorated cut out cookies that were ready and waiting for their special touches. No two cookies were exactly alike but each and every one was decorated with tender loving care, mixed with a lot of laughs and conversation. Our instructor, Karen, baked all the cookies, provided all the royal icing and then turned around and donated all the proceeds from the fees for the class to Toys for Tots and art kits for Children's Hospital.

What a blessing all around!

You may notice some Thank You's scattered throughout this newsletter —while these folks definitely deserve to be lifted up, they represent just a portion of the reasons we have to be thankful.

Thankful

From helping plan and execute all the details of our Centennial Celebrations this past year to everyday and often unnoticed tasks like sharpening pencils and changing paraments, filling candles, ensuring we do not run out of communion bread or wine, painting walls, providing snacks or hosting coffee hours, setting up and/or helping serve communion, ushering, being involved with Children's Ministry and helping with the F.I.S.H., Confirmation and High School youth groups, representing Trinity at the Farmer's Market (and everywhere we go!), participating with and sharing Monarch Ministry in our community, singing, instrument accompanists, recording, editing and providing an online presence, counting and recording offerings, making prayer shawls, quilting, gardening, helping with mailings, supporting food collections and providing meals and or gifts for folks who find themselves needing a hand up, to the simple act of writing a note or lifting a prayer and a plethora of other random tasks (small, large and in between) . . . as we reflect on all those who step up and (seen or not seen) make a difference for our congregation and beyond, we find the list of people to thank and for whom we are grateful is as long as it is wide.

Please know whether you see your name in print or not, your support of Trinity's ministries monetarily and by way of tasks are both needed and very much appreciated. Because of you and what you share, we are truly blessed.

blessed

From the center of our hearts, Thank YOU!

Bible Study
TUESDAYS

BIBLE STUDY RESUMES

TUESDAY, JANUARY 3 | 1 PM

We will begin a six week study of the book of Deuteronomy. This book is the final instructions Moses gives the people as they are preparing to enter the Promised Land. At a deeper level the book establish the theological argument that good is rewarded and evil is punished, an idea challenged in other parts of the Bible.

All are welcome to join us on Tuesday afternoons, live or on line. We will also record the sessions and replay them on Trinity's Youtube channel.

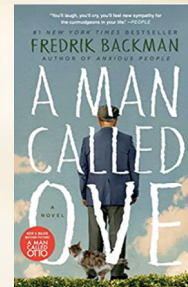

3 MONTHS OF BOOK STUDIES

I have had an abundance of suggestions for book study so I am setting up the next three months so you can start reading.

1 January's book will be A Man Called Ove by Fredrick Backman.

BOOK STUDY DISCUSSION | TUESDAY, JANUARY 31 | 6:30 PM

Ove is a curmudgeon. He has staunch principles, strict routines, and a short fuse. People call him the bitter neighbor from hell. But his world is turned upside down when a chatty young couple with two chatty young daughters move in next door and accidentally flatten Ove's mailbox. The book is the basis for the upcoming movie, A Man Called Otto starring Tom Hanks.

2 February's book will be Jesus and John Wayne by Kristin Kobes Du Mez.

FEBRUARY BOOK STUDY DISCUSSION DATE | TBA

From the back of the book we find the description: Jesus and John Wayne is a sweeping account that reveals how some American Evangelicals have worked for decades to replace the Jesus of the Gospels with an image of rugged masculinity and Christian Nationalism.

3 March's book will be The First Paul by Marcus Borg and John Dominic Crossan.

MARCH BOOK STUDY DISCUSSION DATE | TBA

Crossan and Borg—two of the world's top-selling Christian scholars and the bestselling authors of The Last Week and The First Christmas—once again shake up the status quo by arguing that the message of the apostle Paul, considered by many to be the second most important figure in Christianity, has been domesticated by the church. Borg and Crossan turn the common perception of Paul on its head, revealing him as a radical follower of Jesus whose core message is still relevant today.
