Dear Children of God,

School is just about out for the summer. I am sure if you have children in the family, they are probably pretty excited. Summer is a time for many when the pressures of grades and tests and schedules give way to seeking the deepest joys of the heart.

For me (Pastor Dave) youthful summers meant baseball all day—and I mean all day! I dreamt of the possibility of being a professional one day. I would spend hours not just playing but fielding grounders thrown at me or hit to me, hitting a baseball, or watching the game on TV. I also spent time with those I loved. My parents would take the family on short nearby trips, picnics and hikes, the zoo and a nearby amusement park (small by comparison to Great America). I also always spent a week with Grandma Schoob, being spoiled and having as much to eat as I could hold. In those days it was easy to see the beauty and the joy of life.

Today it's sometimes harder to see. Adulthood brings many more demands and a much broader awareness of what must be done, paid for, and handled. There are responsibilities and deadlines and, even when you love your job, duties that can be difficult, exhausting, and annoying at times. The world, that seemed so beautiful and carefree when I was young—now seems threatened by so many things.

As we enter these summer months, I invite and challenge each of us to once more embrace and find joy in the multitude of blessings that surround us. Find something that you love to do and do it—maybe all day, or maybe all day for a few days. Be with the people you love; really be with them—let go of some of the things that weigh you down. Notice the beauty all around—watch a sunrise, or a sunset, or maybe both. Dream!

When we practice noticing, seeing, enjoying, and dreaming, we can find new perspective, relief and joy. We begin to see the beauty even amidst the flurry of things that demand our attention. As we work, out of the corner or our eye we see the sunrise and we rejoice. We see a butterfly flit by as we mow the yard and know there is new life.

The Psalmist reminds us:

This is the day that the Lord has made, let us rejoice and be glad in it.

Or Garrison Keillor has an interesting way of putting it:

What keeps faith cheerful is the extreme persistence of gentleness and humor. Gentleness is everywhere in daily life, a sign that faith rules through ordinary things: through cooking and small talk, through storytelling, making love, fishing, tending animals and sweet corn and flowers, through sports, music, and books, raising kids—all the places where the gravy soaks in and grace shines through. Even in a time of elephantine vanity and greed, one never has to look far to see the campfires of gentle people. Lacking any other purpose in life, it would be good enough to live for their sake.

It might have seemed easier when we were children, but we still are and will always be children of God. I know we can still do it!

May your summer be filled with blessings ... that you notice!

SYNOD ASSEMBLY REFLECTIONS

FROM TRINITY FOLKS WHO ATTENDED

The 2024 Greater Milwaukee ELCA Synod Assembly was held May 17-18 at the Italian Community Center in Milwaukee—the theme was COURAGE | MAY COURAGE BE OUR DAILY BREATH. Those in attendance from our congregation were: Pastors Dave and Cristy, Amy Kreutzer, Jodi McMahon, John Kenworthy, Patrick Budoff and Anita McClain. Nate Shubat also attended the assembly, representing ProjectRETURN/Breaking The Chains Church ministry. Here are some reflections from a few who there:

TRINITY BLESSED TO WELCOME NEW MEMBERS SUNDAY, MAY 12

WELCOME Bob & Sue Biesch
TRINITY SPONSORS: Denise & John Kenworthy

WELCOME Joseph Hurley
WELCOME Karrie Liles | Gabriella & Finnegan
TRINITY SPONSOR: Kristen Robinson

WELCOME Kim McIntyre | Dane
TRINITY SPONSORS: The Brockman Family

The annual Greater Milwaukee Synod (GMS) Assembly is an important opportunity for representatives from all 115 congregations to work together using our core values of curiosity, courage, compassion, and collaboration. There were many Holy Spirit moments found through devotion, prayers, singing hymns, and worship. We passed 5 important resolutions for our Synod and the wider church.

More information can be found at milwaukeesynod.org —Jodi McMahon

I constantly come back to thoughts of mission and outreach. Although we have been called through the Great Commission (Mt 28:18-20) to reach out to all children of the Great Spirit, it is to share as equal witnesses along the journey not as patriarchs bestowing unto others our self-anointed largesse. To paraphrase keynote speaker Vance Blackfox: Indigenous people do not need us to bring them our privileged version of Jesus - Christ is already there at the center of their faith no less so than he is in ours. The Great Commission when seen in this light can therefore become about walking arm and arm with all children of the Great Spirit in mutually-effectual support and love. Aho....
—John Kenworthy

The highlight of the synod assembly this year was the presence of Pastor Vance Blackfox, head of the ELCA indigenous ministries. He invited us to see the face of Jesus as the face of an indigenous person. He called us all to open ourselves to true partnership with all God's people- celebrating the diversity of all God's beautiful children.

In many ways the assembly moved in the same spirit. We approved a new plan for inclusion and justice for the Greater Milwaukee Synod. We as a synod uplifted the work of Lutheran World Hunger which is celebrating 50 years this year. We asked the wider ELCA to develop a statement addressing the concerns of vulnerable youth. We passed a resolution asking the leaders of the country to limit the scope of corporations in their influence so the voices of each person might be more easily heard. We asked the larger church to increase the guidelines for clergy continuing education amounts and to create easier access to information about clergy seeking calls to help congregations in their transitions.

We also celebrated the life of the Church of the Great Spirit an ELCA indigenous congregation in Milwaukee. May we continue to celebrate God's wonderful, beautiful and diverse creation in all we do.
—Pastor Dave

Reflecting upon the recent Greater Milwaukee Synod Assembly, the larger church, like the individual congregations and members, is trying to figure out where it needs to go to build God's world here—and how to get there. It has come a long way, but it still has a long way to go. What gives hope is that the over 100 congregations that make up the Greater Milwaukee Synod keep coming together and working together to build that better world.
—Nate Shubat

I was honored to be a part of Synod Assembly 2024. The theme of Courage was exemplified throughout the program including the speech given by keynote speaker Vance Blackfox, theologian and citizen of the Cherokee Nation. My eyes were opened once again to the struggles of the indigenous tribes. The Lutheran Church of the Great Spirit of Milwaukee hosted the worship service on Friday night which was moving and beautiful. I was able to participate in a smudging ceremony on Saturday morning in the courtyard. It was a purifying way to begin the day of prayer and church business. I encourage all members to participate; participating in Synod Assembly allows you to see the greater church at work, is inspiring, and educational. —Anita McClain

MAY 18-19 | Trinity's PENTECOST weekend included the tradition of clothing ourselves in the colors of red, orange, yellow and flames! After a spirit-filled worship the congregation gathered to celebrate the birth of the church and the last day of Children's Ministry by partaking in a delicious and fun ice cream social!

JOHN WILSON proudly poses as he helps his dad unload just one of the many boxes of aluminum pop tabs the Wilson family delivered to the Ronald McDonald House on Tab Toss Day, May 11th!

FROM TIFFANY WILSON | This is one of my favorite days of every year - repaying the care and love RMH provided us. Every year, our families, friends, church (Trinity), coworkers, and school district collect pop tabs for us to deliver on Tab Toss Day. We are blessed every year by people who share a handful and groups that share many. Together, we collected 166 pounds of pop tabs for the Ronald McDonald House Charities of Eastern Wisconsin. It was great to see this day return to its pre-pandemic celebration capacity. Here's to many more years of helping to keep families close.

The 2025 collection has begun, please keep those pop tabs coming!

Thank you, Trinity!

Congratulations 2024 GRADUATES

May God bless your steps and watch over you.

For I know the plans I have for you, plans to prosper you and not harm you, plans to give you hope and a future.

CONTINUING THE ANTI-RACISM JOURNEY

Through April and May we had the opportunity to talk together about the book So You Want to Talk About Race. I think it was a time of growth for everyone who participated. We engaged with one of the most important and difficult realities that we face as people in America. As a group we decided we needed to continue the journey. And so we will in July.

On July 15 and 22 we will discuss the book White Fragility by Robin DiAngelo. This book delves into the question, “Why is it so hard for white people to talk about race?” The sessions will be held at 6:30 and are about an hour long. We will be partnering with Holy Angels on these discussions. I invite everyone to join us on this journey to become anti-racist in the midst of the racism all around us.

FAITHFUL GIVING MAKES A DIFFERENCE

A growing number of people are finding that automatic giving is an easy way to give faithfully to the Church. You can set up an automatic withdrawal on a schedule that works for you. No more worries about forgetting your offering at home or forgetting to take care of it while traveling. It is also really helpful to the congregation because we have greater certainty for ministry resources each month. Please consider this as a way to manage your gifts to Trinity. Scan the QR code to give anytime or call the office for help to set up an automatic giving account.
