PASTORAL WELCOME AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

TRINITY WELCOME

THOUGHTS FOR THE DAY

We are created for a purpose. Every one of us. We are not a mistake! I am not a mistake! You are not a mistake!

-Lori Fuller

“God calls us to disrupt the idea that we are Americans or Palestinians or Israelis. God calls us to remember that we are ALL human beings and children of God. Every human being deserves to be safe and free!”

- Rev. Sally Azar

God doesn't want our bland conformity. God loves our unique personalities! And God's images shines through the you that is truly you. That is that you that God set free.

- Drew Tucker

Instead of being bound by the expectations of others, contorting myself into the most uncomfortable positions for their approval – I found myself chasing the freedom of expression that God intended for all of creation.

-Keats Myles-Wallace

To be named is to be loved. And to be loved is to be seen. And to be seen is to know that the full you, the shiny you, the messy you, the confused you, the strong you, the awkward you, the everything you – is so deeply and wildly loved. Is so deeply and wildly enough.

-Emily Harkins

SCRIPTURES AND REFLECTIONS

“Created to Be...”

Trinity Senior High Youth

Scripture 1

Psalm 139:13-14

For you created my inmost being;
you knit me together in my mother’s womb.
¹⁴ I praise you because I am fearfully and wonderfully made;
your works are wonderful,

Reflection

Scripture 2

Matthew 5:14-16

“You are the light of the world. A city built on a hill cannot be hid. ¹⁵ People do not light a lamp and put it under the bushel basket; rather, they put it on the lampstand, and it gives light to all in the house. ¹⁶ In the same way, let your light shine before others, so that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father in heaven.

Reflection

Scripture 3

Galations 5:13-14

For you were called to freedom, brothers and sisters, only do not use your freedom as an opportunity for self-indulgence, but through love become enslaved to one another. For the whole law is summed up in a single commandment, “You shall love your neighbor as yourself.”

Reflection

Scripture 4

Matthew 21:12

Then Jesus entered the temple and drove out all who were selling and buying in the temple, and he overturned the tables of the money changers and the seats of those who sold doves.

Reflection

Scripture 5

Matthew 22:36-40

“Teacher, which commandment in the law is the greatest?” ³⁷ He said to him, “ ‘You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind.’ This is the greatest and first commandment. And a second is like it: ‘You shall love your neighbor as yourself.’ On these two commandments hang all the Law and the Prophets.”

THE PRAYERS

L: Created to be loved by God, transformed by the hope of the resurrection and the friendship of the Holy Spirit, let us pray... Holy God, you create us to be your people. You search us and know us and call us by name. We come, this day, with the joys and challenges that surround us in this life. We are thankful for new friendships and moments of reconnection with others, with ourselves, and with you. Thank you for creating us to be brave in the face of our fears. Hear our prayers, O God, and remind us...

C: That we are created to be your hope in the world.

L: You are always ready to welcome us and expect us to come as we are now, today, in this moment. You invite us to come to you without the masks we wear for the world. You welcome us despite our mistakes, missteps, misjudgments, and misunderstandings. You encourage us to reveal our authentic selves so that we may live in the fullness of your creative glory. Help us to speak when others are silent. Help us to meet the needs others ignore. Thank you for creating us to be authentic in a world that offers mask and mirror to deceive us and each other. Hear our prayers, O God, and remind us...

C: That we are created to be your hope in the world.

L: Gracious God, you create us to be free. By your death on the cross and your resurrection you give us freedom to not do anything we want to do, but you create us to be free to serve each other with love. Without the world’s rules or obligations or expectations, we are free to live our lives for you. By your love, you free us to be everything you want us to be. Thank you for creating us to be free from all that holds us back for your promise of life. Hear our prayers, O God, and remind us...

C: That we are created to be your hope in the world.

L: You call us to follow your example of disruption, that we might learn a new and better way to live in this world together. Out of your deep love for us, you disrupt the old systems of corruption, racism, sexism, and greed to awaken in us the recognition of the worth and dignity of each person created in your image. Thank you for creating us to be disruptive at tables where injustice and inequality are revealed. Hear our prayers, O God, and remind us...

C: That we are created to be your hope in the world

L. Help us to dream and imagine our lives fully created in your image. Teach us to follow your example that in you we are created to be brave, living authentic lives, serving freely, following in your footsteps of disruption, sending us out to be disciples reflecting your love to all the world. In the name of Jesus we pray,

C: Amen.

THE COMMUNION SENTENCES

L2: The Lord be with you.

C: And also with you.

L1: Lift up your hearts.

C: We lift them up to the Lord.

L2: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

C: It is right to give our thanks and praise

L1: Holy God, we praise you. Let the heavens be joyful, and the earth be glad. We bless you for creating the whole world; for your promises to your people Israel, and for Jesus Christ in whom your fullness dwells. Born of Mary,

C: Jesus creates us to be.

L2: Eating with sinners,

C: Jesus creates us to be brave.

L1: Guiding his children

C: Jesus creates us to be authentic.

L2: Visiting the sick,

C: Jesus creates us to be free.

L1: Dying on the cross,

C: Jesus creates us to be disruptive.

L2: Rising from the dead,

C: Jesus creates us to be disciples.

L1: In the night in which he was betrayed, our Lord Jesus took bread, and gave thanks; broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying: Take and eat; this is my body, given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me. Again, after supper, he took the cup, gave thanks, and gave it for all to drink, saying: this cup is the new covenant in my blood, shed for you and for all people for the forgiveness of sin. Do this for the remembrance of me.

With thanksgiving we take this bread and this cup and proclaim the mystery of faith.

C: Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again.

L1: Pour out your Holy Spirit upon us that this meal may be a communion of the body and blood of our Lord. Make us one with Christ and with all who share this feast. Unite us in faith; encourage us in hope; inspire us to love, that we may serve as your faithful disciples until we feast at your table in glory. We praise you, eternal God through Jesus your Word made flesh, in the holy and life-giving Spirit now and forever.

C: Amen. Come Holy Spirit.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us. Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil. For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours, now and forever. Amen.

INVITATION TO THE TABLE

The table is now ready. It is the table of company with Jesus, and all who love him. It is the table of sharing with the poor of the world, with whom Jesus identified himself. It is the table of communion with the earth, in which Christ became incarnate. So come to this table, you who have much faith and you who would like to have more; you who have been here often and you who have not been for a long time; you who have tried to follow Jesus, and you who have failed; come. It is Christ who invites us to meet him here. All is ready.

Trinity Lutheran Church is located on the original and ancestral homelands of the Ho-Chunk and Potawatomi people. As such, we wish to give thanks for their presence here since time immemorial. We also recognize and honor all our Indigenous siblings who have and continue to call this land their home. It is our sincere desire that this acknowledgement initiates an ongoing instructive, and constructive journey toward respect, truth and healing regarding colonialism, the church community, and inclusivity for all children of the Great Spirit. We commit ourselves as God's children to pray for our indigenous siblings, to pray for God's blessings on them and for strength for them and for us as we work together for justice, dignity, respect and peace for all the diverse people of the land.
