

Dennis Anderson (Baritone)

This is Dennis' first time singing with härmanē, but he was a part of the Trinity Advent Cantata Choir in 2023. He is Paul Anderson's uncle. During the week, he works as a mental health therapist in Mequon. He hopes you enjoy this afternoon of music!

Paul Anderson (Baritone)

From studying piano, to playing in a rock band, to singing with the Created to Praise singers at Trinity, music has always been, and still is an important part of Paul's life. He enjoys bringing his artistic talents to his day job of stonemason. His wife Candace and children Henry, Larsen and Francesca all have their own musical endeavors and enjoy supporting their dad/ husband.

Tony Brodzeller (Baritone)

Tony is thrilled to back with this great group of men! He loves to sing and has been sharing his voice as a worship leader and in community theater. He met his wife of 25 years in their high school choir room and is a super proud "girl dad" who typically shares the stage with his talented daughters. Previous favorite theater experiences include Shrek, Music Man, Fiddler on the Roof and Newsies. Come see him (and his daughter) perform as Daddy Warbucks in Annie with Spotlight Productions, West Bend WI October 2-5. Ephesians 4:32

Patrick Budoff (Tenor 2)

Patrick is thrilled to be singing with härmanē for the third time. Patrick has done a mixture of playing guitar, singing, and cantoring at Trinity Lutheran Church for 14 years. Patrick played viola in orchestral and symphonic settings through high school and college, including two international performances in Scotland. Patrick currently works as a Program Manager at MGS Mfg. Group, Inc. in Germantown, celebrating his 5-year anniversary.

Rick Gilbertson (Tenor 2)

Rick has been singing in churches since 1960 in Keyeser, WI...over those 65 years, he's also sung with multiple choruses of Columbus High School, UW-Oshkosh, UW-WC, Milwaukee Symphony, & currently the EcuMen. He's performed in 55 different musicals in multiple community theatre productions as well as professionally with The Skylight. Rick has served Trinity as "song leader" for the last 25 years & continues to perform with his ukulele with WAUI at assisted living communities (& often bars).

Greg Griffin (Bass)

Apart from his primary vocation as Hazel's husband, Greg worked for 35 years in the fermentation industry, retiring in 2019. He has sung with the Created to Praise group at Trinity since its inception in 1997 and is excited and honored to participate in his fifth härmənē ensemble in 2025.

Hazel Griffin (Accompanist/Coordinator)

Hazel is delighted that these men have come back together for a 5th season of singing to benefit the community! Away from härmənē, she keeps her fingers busy at the keyboard accompanying high school choirs and various school and community musical theater groups as well as the Created to Praise service at Trinity. She also enjoys traveling and hiking, growing flowers and weeds, and baking - and is a volunteer baker at The Hub. She thanks the Men of härmənē for sharing their time, their kind hearts, and their great voices to make this concert happen!

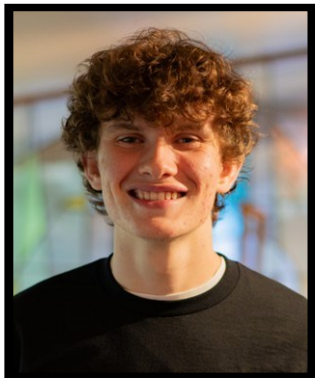

Vincent Hanson (Baritone)

This is Vincent's first year singing with härmənē. He's a fresh high school grad with dreams of attending med school to become a psychiatrist, but enjoys writing and singing in his free time. He has a particular love of stage plays and performance arts, having himself performed in Slinger High School's last 3 musicals as lead roles. He hopes you enjoy the show!

Charlie Hillman (Baritone)

Charlie Hillman has been married to and been in business with Gaytha for more than a half a century. They are delighted to have three daughters and seven grandchildren. Charlie is an MIT educated engineer/programmer with an eclectic career typically involving disruptive technologies. He has been singing with various groups at Trinity for almost seventy years. Härmənē is his favorite as he gets to sing a more interesting part as a baritone. Charlie has served his church as Council President and his community in various volunteer leadership positions. He is grateful to all who have attended this important benefit concert.

Alek Konrath (Tenor 2)

Alek is a senior at Slinger High School and is performing with härmənē men's choir for the first time. He has sung throughout his whole life, doing choir throughout his middle school and high school years as well as performing in many musicals. He has learned a lot from this choir and is excited to perform with them.

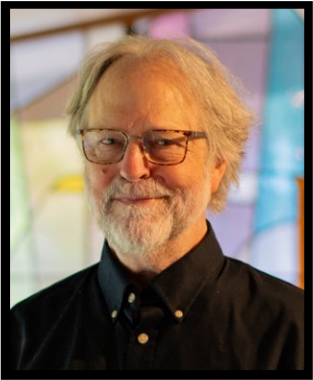

Eadrick Lohr-Kougl (Tenor 1)

Eadrick is a sophomore at UW Madison studying physics and mathematics. In his free time, he likes fencing, playing volleyball, and long walks on the beach. This is his second year with härmänē, and he is excited to return for another amazing concert!

David Pecs (Tenor 1)

David is thrilled to return for härmänē's fifth season. He serves as the Director of Music at Grace Presbyterian Church in Beaver Dam, as Director and Lighting Designer for many area musicals, and is the general music educator at Saint Frances Cabrini School. David is an alum of Lawrence University's Conservatory of Music.

Mark Peterson (Bass)

Mark Peterson, long-time professor and troublemaker up at UW Washington County, is thrilled to be back singing with these great guys for a great cause and great fun.

Phil Pierce (Bass)

Phil and his family are members of Trinity Lutheran where he sings with the Created to Praise Singers and other groups as the opportunities arise. When not biking with his youngest son or enjoying other family activities, Phil works at Harley-Davidson where he has spent the last 26 years developing new engines.

Steven Prust (Baritone)

Steve has spent his entire career as both a science and religion educator; sixteen years of teaching in Wisconsin and 23 years at international schools in Latin America, Asia, and the Middle East. He ended his career with a three-year stint as an adjunct professor of biology at Hawkeye College in Waterloo, Iowa before retiring.

Musically, Steve has sung with community choirs in Waukesha, Hartford, West Bend, Green Lake, and Fond du Lac. He continues to play his trumpet in retirement in two or sometimes three different groups in the West Bend area. "It's a joy to make music!"

Rudy Rosbeck-Ledesma (Tenor 1)

Rudy Rosbeck-Ledesma, born in Lansing, MI, developed a lifelong passion for singing that emerged from the moment he heard a song. Throughout his early years and into high school, he developed his vocal talents, captivating audiences with his heartfelt performances in school and church choir. Some of his most memorable performances have been those singing his own lyrics and songs at Washington County Pride and Milwaukee Pride Market. Rudy is extremely excited to be in his sophomore year with härmənē.

T.J. Rosbeck-Ledesma (Baritone)

T.J. Rosbeck-Ledesma grew-up in West Bend, with a passion for singing from a young age in elementary school. His journey as a vocalist continued further through performances in summer theater programs at UWWC, where he honed his craft throughout high school. Alongside his musical pursuits, T.J. has carved out a career as a full-time hairstylist in Milwaukee, WI, amassing a remarkable 20 years of experience. With his creative flair and dedication, T.J. is super excited to make his return with härmənē after last year's hiatus.

Henry Sparling (Bass)

Henry Sparling is a junior at West Bend East High School, where his favorite class has always been choir! He has found it fulfilling to use his talent in this group to share with the audience! He hopes you enjoy the concert!

Jim Wittmann (Bass)

This is Jim's fifth year singing with härmənē. It is such an honor to be able to join this talented group of men and of course under the direction of Karen and Hazel. You will find Jim also singing with another local men's group, EcuMen; look for us this fall performing around the area. He also sings with his wife at Holy Trinity church in Newburg. Jim would like to thank his wife Mary for her continued support.

Clayton Wojtalewicz (Tenor 1)

Clayton is a 15-year-old sophomore at West Bend West High School who enjoys singing and being in plays/musicals. You might have seen him in Frozen Jr. and Alice's Adventures in Wonderland. Currently he is in Annie which is being performed by West Bend Spotlight Productions. He is a proud member of Concert Choir at WBHS and recently attended NextDirection Choir Camp. Clayton was invited to join härmənē by Hazel Griffin and is very appreciative. He hopes you enjoy the harmony of the songs and hear the hard work we put in!

Karen Wysocky

Karen Wysocky is a National Board Certified Teacher and has taught all grade levels from Kindergarten to College in her 40-year teaching career! The majority of her time was spent as the Choral Director at WBHS. She LOVES Music Theater, the Olympics, ballet, figure skating, going out to eat and is always up for a road trip! Now that she is retired (we think...) she enjoys reading, cooking, gardening, puzzles and knitting. She is active in her Church as a cantor, and enjoys walking her dog, Baxter. Karen is super excited for you to hear this amazing group of men share their talents with you!
