BEHIND THE STORIES | Resurrection - PART 1

The stories of the resurrection of Jesus are filled with strangeness, and the idea of resurrection from the dead can be a challenge to our modern minds. The Christian claim that Jesus is raised from the dead has always been a challenge to people's faith, and all the more so in our modern age.

Next month, I will talk about the resurrection stories themselves, but for now I want to acknowledge that many people can find themselves struggling with the reality of Jesus' resurrection, and by extension, the promise of resurrection for ourselves and our loved ones. St. Paul says that "we walk by faith and not by sight" (2 Cor. 5:7), and "for now we see in a mirror, dimly, but then we will see face to face" (1 Cor. 13:12). We do not have certainty of what is beyond death, either that of Jesus or of ourselves or loved ones. I do not think that we are meant to have certainty. For certainty is not faith.

For now, at times, we struggle. And that is okay. So, for this month, I am offering you a poem written in 1933 by the Welsh poet, Dylan Thomas. It has long spoken to me about a faith that struggles with death and resurrection, with questions of suffering, with endurance, and with hope. (As an aside, I will note that he wrote this poem when he was only 18.)

NO MAN BELIEVES

DYLAN THOMAS, 1933

*No man believes who, when a star falls shot,
Cries not aloud blind as a bat,
Cries not in terror when a bird is drawn
Into the quicksand feathers down,
Who does not make a wound in faith
When any light goes out, and life is death.*

*No man believes who cries not, God is not,
Who feels not the coldness in the heat,
In the breasted summer longs not for spring,
No breasted girl, no man who, young
And green, sneers not at the old sky.
No man believes who does not wonder why.*

*Believe and be saved. No man believes
Who curses not what makes and saves,
No man upon this cyst of earth
Believes who does not lance his faith,
No man, no man, no man.*

*And this is true, no man can live
Who does not bury God in a deep grave
And then raise up the skeleton again,
No man who does not break and make,
Who in the bones finds not new faith,
Lends not flesh to ribs and neck,
Who does not break and make his final faith.*

In Christ's Peace,

Pastor Robb

CHAMPIONS OF CHANGE

Champions of Change, is an evening to celebrate volunteerism in the Washington County Community. Jim and Suzanne Barker were nominated for the Stronger Together Award, and Denise Kenworthy was nominated for the Unsung Hero Award. The Unsung Hero Award recognizes a group or individual who makes a difference from behind the scenes. While the contributions may go unnoticed, the impact is felt by many. Denise Kenworthy is the 2026 Unsung Hero Award winner for her quiet but powerful dedication to community service, supporting education, food security, environmental stewardships, and countless local and global initiatives with generosity, care, and unwavering commitment. As nominees we'd like to acknowledge Trinity Lutheran Church for playing a vital role in providing opportunities that make a difference in our community and the world. That is worth celebrating!

THANK YOU!

A very excited (and sweet) Delilah Jane Dehler was baptized at Trinity on Sunday, March 22 surrounded by her family and Children's Ministry friends alike. Instead of the (small) white crocheted blanket traditionally given to babies on their baptism day, the Trinity Comforters made a special blanket—wrapping her with love and prayer.

6 year old, Elouise Brockman asked Santa for a purple ukulele this past Christmas and, on Sunday, April 19th, the Trinity congregation was blessed when she shared her newly developed skill—joining Rick & Sue Gilbertson and Cindy Tikusis in a ukulele accompanied rendition of "Here I am, Lord" . . . God is good!

THE CALL PROCESS JOURNEY

FROM CHERYL SCAFFIDI - CONGREGATION COUNCIL PRESIDENT

The Congregation Council received several applications from individuals interested in serving on the Ministry Exploration Team (MET). We are truly grateful for the strong interest and willingness to serve—each applicant would have been a valuable addition to the team.

Because we are limited to how many team members we can appoint, while not everyone who applied will be able to serve as an official member, the MET may still reach out to those individuals, as well as the congregation as a whole, for input and support throughout the process. This will be a shared journey, and many voices will help shape the path forward. Watch for continued updates in the monthly newsletter and during church services.

Thank you to everyone who applied and expressed a willingness to serve. The Council has selected and notified the MET team members. They will begin their work in May.

Journeying the process together in Christ

Trinity Comforters

BLESSING OF THE BLANKETS | MAY 17

On Sunday, May 17th, the pews will be lined with blankets made by the Trinity Comforters and will be blessed during both worship services.

Although we have a faithful group of regulars that work on the blankets each Thursday afternoon, we could not carry out our mission without the generous support of the entire congregation. The congregation is the vital lifeline of their work, and that is certainly worth celebrating!

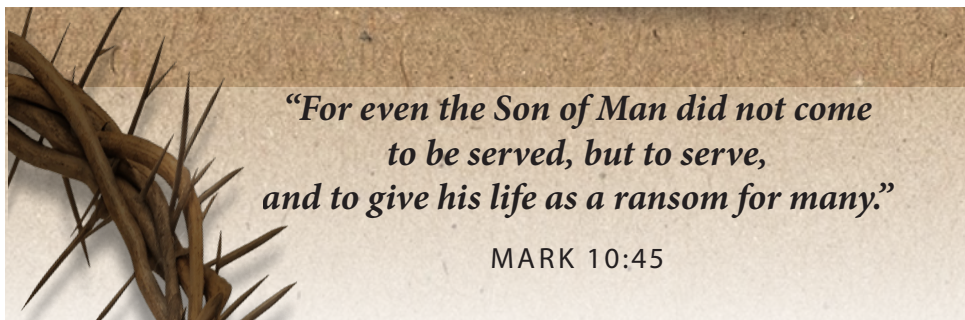

The Trinity Comforters make blankets of warmth for people in need in and outside our community. In 2025 the Trinity Comforters created over 360 blankets and 8 bed pillows. They donated their blankets of comfort to Lutheran World Relief, Project Return, Circle of Friends, Family Promise, the Gingerbread House, Immanuel United Church, Bob's Under the Bridge, and Froedtert Hospital/Kathy Hospice patients. It has been a number of years since we have had the blankets blessed.

Keep the Trinity Comforters in mind when you tackle your spring cleaning! The Trinity Comforters always gladly accept donations of (barely used and new) flat cotton sheets AND will also accept donations of JEWELRY at this time for their fall fundraiser. Due to limited storage, please hold off on donations of books and puzzles, etc. until Fall. Jewelry can be dropped off at the church office.

Contact Suzanne Barker with any questions | 847-212-8558

Thank you for your support!

“For even the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many.”

CHILDREN'S MINISTRY

LITTLE LAMBS

During the month of March the Little Lambs learned all about Holy Week! From Palm Sunday to Jesus sacrificing his life for us. Even though Jesus died on the cross, we are not sad because he was a good guy and HE IS ALIVE! Our first lesson after Easter was about Jesus calming the sea and the wind when he saved his disciples—we learned that Jesus is with us even when we are scared.

CHILDREN'S MINISTRY JESUS THE KING OF CREATION WALK'N ON WATER

After Easter we began our last rotation of the year, Jesus the King of Creation! In TELLiT, our kiddos not only heard the story about the disciples being caught in a storm while they were in their fishing boat and Jesus walking on water to reach them and calm the storm —they tried out "walking on water" themselves!

THANK YOU APRIL VOLUNTEERS

Through readings, portrayals and song, Trinity's Confirmation youth took us from Jesus' joyous entry into Jerusalem, to overturning tables, sharing the last supper with his disciples, praying in the Garden of Gethsemane, the ultimate betrayal, to the ultimate sacrifice—Jesus' crucifixion.

Our confirmation youth did a great job of walking us through the entire week. Many of the same people who shouted out, "Hosanna to the son of David" (save us) to Jesus when the week began, were screaming, "Crucify him!" before the week was over.

We know what Jesus did—the question is, what would you have done? With the obligation of being a Roman Soldier—would you dare not follow orders? Out of fear of retribution to yourself and your family—would you stand up against the High Priests? Would you stand up against the crowd?

As followers of Jesus, we face these same questions today. Are we following his example and commandment to "Love one another as I have loved you"? Are we afraid of retribution? Do we stand up against the crowd?

MONDAY, JUNE 1 | 6:30 PM

A SAFE PLACE to share offers us time to share our concerns about the world. It is not a place for answers, but a place to share and encourage one another as we try to live our Christian commitment in a world that often seems to be very un-Christian. It is a SAFE PLACE because we gather not to condemn or berate, or even to convince—but to listen with respect, share in vulnerability, and support one another.

ALL ARE WELCOME IN THIS SAFE PLACE — join us!
